5TH ANNUAL

JOY TO THE VILLE

AT THE PAUL J. SCHUPF ART CENTER

Embrace the holiday spirit at our 5th annual Joy to the Ville community celebration at the new Paul J. Schupf Art Center! All activities will take place at 93 Main Street, Waterville, unless otherwise noted. Join Waterville Creates, the Colby College Museum of Art, the Waterville Public Library, the Children's Discovery Museum, and Bixby Chocolate Café as we celebrate the magic of the season.

In addition to the activities listed below, the following exhibitions will be on view throughout the day: Light on Main Street at the Joan Dignam Schmaltz Gallery of Art, Common Threads at Ticonic Gallery, Karina Steele's site-specific installation in the MFC lobby, and a display of spectacular costumes from the Waterville Opera House. Free art lunchboxes + luminary art kits, rolling art cart activities, and refreshments, including MFC popcorn and Bixby's drinking chocolate, will be available all day.

All activities are FREE and open to all!
